

Sydney Royal Report 2014.

Numbers of exhibits improved significantly for this year's Sydney Royal Show in spite of difficult climatic conditions through spring and summer. All exhibitors are to be commended for their commitment and dedication to produce such a great promotion of the breed on the 'biggest stage' in NSW. Six exhibitors presented sixteen animals to the Judge Mr Jeff House (Forbes NSW). Particularly encouraging was the involvement of a large group of very enthusiastic students (and their teacher) from Northholm Grammar School, exhibiting two heifers purchased from the Kingham Stud.

The camaraderie among the 'Galloway' family was very evident, with all exhibitors sharing in several convivial events and helping each other throughout the show. A significant number of breeders attended the show (particularly on judging day) to show their support to those exhibiting and to network with the group. This moral support was very much appreciated by all exhibitors and the presence of these breeders around the judging ring added a lot to the atmosphere of the event. A huge 'THANK YOU' to those who made the effort to attend and support the exhibitors.

Again Thank You and Congratulations to all exhibitors on the success of the Show. It would be great to see you all (and more) in Sydney for next year's Show. A list of results is displayed below.
