INFORMATION FOR SUNDAY 30TH JULY 2017

10am – morning tea and history of the GLEN JUNOR property

10.30 am – 12.30pm farm walk

Hosted by Trent McCamley, on behalf of the McCamley and Kehoe families

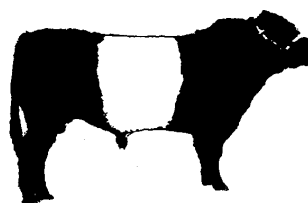

At 284 Kilmore Rd, Gisborne Victoria 3437, 0448 900 990 (Trent McCamley)

As part of the ABGA Annual General Meeting weekend, there will be a farm visit to 'GLEN JUNOR' Belted Galloways.

GLEN JUNOR has one of the largest herds of registered and commercial Belted Galloways in Australia, with approximately 100 breeding females. The herd was formed in 2016 with the purchase of registered and commercial cattle; they have kindly offered to show us the herd as part of the 2017 ABGA Annual General Meeting weekend. We hope to see you all in July at the farm.

Glen Junor is a historical pastoral farm in Gisborne, Victoria. The farm comprises of 525 acres of improved pasture, with 2 kilometres of Jackson's Creek incorporated along it's boundary. Most of the improvements to the land were made over the past few decades by legendary Melbourne Cup jockey Harry White, who retired to the farm after his racing career came to an end. Many of Harry's favourite horses retired to the farm with him. "Think Big" (Melbourne Cup winner in 1974 and 1975) and "Hyperno" (Winner of the Melbourne Cup in 1979) are buried on the farm. The McCamley and Kehoe families purchased Glen Junor from Harry in 2015 and soon after a herd of Belted Galloways were grazing the paddocks once only reserved for

FIELD DAY: FREEDOM RISE

Up-Date and Reminder- Field Day – Freedom Rise Stud, Yarraman, Queensland – Sunday 23rd April 2017

Just a reminder about our Field Day, and an update of the day.

Place: Freedom Rise Belted Galloway Stud, 12340 D'Aguiar Hwy, Yarraman, South East Queensland

Date: Sunday 23rd April 2017

Cost: $10 per head to cover food, and $5 for children.

Firstly, the day is shaping up to great day for all participants. So far we have confirmed attendees from all three associations in Australia that represent the Galloway Family of cattle; as well as owners of Dexter and Mini Hereford Studs. People are coming from as far away as Melbourne, Cessnock, Armidale, Texas, and Mackay in Nth Qld. The day is going to be a fantastic networking opportunity for all attendees.

Here's what your day will look like:

8:30-9:30 am: Tour of property, mix and mingle and "on-the-go" Q&A.

9:30am: Morning Tea with muffins on the menu

10am: Our local Vet Kathy will be giving a two part talk:

One will deal cattle Vaccinations (with particular emphasis on those needed in the SE QLD/Nth NSW area). Kathy will be discussing the various pathogens involved and how the vaccines work. Time permitting, we'll get a demonstration of how and where to inject the vaccines.

The second part will be on Fixed Time Artificial Insemination (FTAI). This is a system of AI that allows animals to be AI'd and calve at the same time. This will be particularly important to those of you who have more than one cow, but do not want to have to keep a bull.

11am: Ear Tattooing and applying NLIS and other tags. We've got several animals to do, and the lighter coloured ears of our red animals will make it easier for you to see the results.

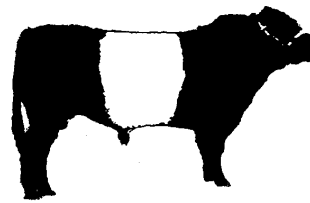

12pm-1pm: Lunch and Raffle Draw. We've got a great halter and lead set that's been donated by the Cattle Clobber (<http://www.cattleclobber.com.au/>) as first prize. All proceeds will go towards hosting the World Galloway conference in Adelaide in 2018

1pm- Cattle breaking. We feel that this is one of the most important ways to increase the value of your animals if you are aiming to sell to the hobby market/small acreage owners. We'll have at least six animals to work with, all in different stages of breaking. We'll show you how to do that initial and crucial first tie-up. Everyone who wants to will be able to participate.

We will have our Computer set up so that we can show you how to use the Australian Galloway Association & Australian Belted Galloway Association websites and well as the NLIS website.

For those who are able to stay longer, we will be conducting further training classes on Monday
